

Bryant University

New Student Orientation 2024

Learning Goals

Academic Excellence

Students will	Families will
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✔ Recognize the importance of interacting with faculty and accessing academic support services.✔ Be able to identify elements of the general education curriculum and their importance.✔ Find a sense of belonging within their academic community.✔ Recognize the high expectations for academic integrity and classroom etiquette.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✔ Understand Bryant's academic expectations for their students✔ Be introduced to the resources that support students' career readiness

Community & Belonging

Students will	Families will
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✔ Confirm their decision to attend Bryant University.✔ Make connections with students, faculty, and staff over different interests and identities.✔ Recognize the importance of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging within the Bryant culture.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✔ Understand their role as a support in their students' college transition process.✔ Discover tactics to assist their students with self-advocacy.✔ Recognize what resources are available to support their students academically, socially, and personally.✔ Recognize the importance of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging within the Bryant culture.

Vibrant Student Life

Students will	Families will
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✔ Identify the variety of resources available to support students on campus.✔ Feel connected to Bryant and feel confident and excited about becoming a Bulldog.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✔ Empower their student to be involved in the Bryant community by joining a club, participating in an event or tradition and by cheering on athletic teams.