This is to certify that Mr. M. E. Bryant and Mr. A. A. Strallor have made the following agreement for opening a Commercial College in the City of Providence. Mr. A. A. Strallor agrees to devote his whole time and energy in advancing the interests of the College by teaching and looking after its interests generally. Mr. A. A. Strallor and Mr. A. A. Strallor agree to furnish the capital for opening the School with the understanding that he said Strallor shall resign to them one half the amount as required. It is also agreed that when the said Edman shall resign to them one half the amount as required that he shall become a half owner in the College but until the said amount is paid back, the College is to be the property of Mr. A. A. Strallor and Mr. A. A. Strallor. It is further agreed that a set of books shall be kept representing at all times the true condition of the assets so that the balance sheet shall be rendered at the close of each month to Mr. A. A. Strallor and Mr. A. A. Strallor. It is also agreed that all current bills shall be paid at the close of each and every current month out of the proceeds of the College before any division of profits between the aforesaid parties. The aforesaid profits of the business shall be divided as follows: Mr. A. A. Strallor one quarter (1/4) Mr. A. A. Strallor one quarter (1/4) Mr. A. A. Strallor one half (1/2) Mr. E. Bryant one half (1/2) The profits to be divided at the close of each month. It is agreed that Mr. E. Bryant and Mr. A. A. Strallor are not to devote any time to the School and all of the expenses are to be borne equally. pomegranate for them to render. The basis for the scholarships, both for the Collegiate Class and for advertising, was to be the same as the other schools, constituting the International Chain of Colleges. It is agreed that all advertising shall be done on our advertising paper and not with Parks. It is agreed that the admission of Scholars shall be upon the same basis as the other schools, constituting the International Chain of Colleges.

It is also agreed that the said A. Mason shall faithfully attend to the duties of the College and to conduct himself entirely any of the effects belonging to said College shall beunmeasurable, no account any act that may incur any liability for the said A. Mason and to J. Straton without the Knowledge or Consent of Contractor is to continue in force ten (10) years unless agreed by the mutual consent of the aforementioned parties.

New York Jan 14 1863

Bryant & Straton

A. Mason