

Career Conversation in... Film & Arts Management

Guest speaker & Bryant alum: Adam Short

Development & Program Manager

Alliance of Artists Communities and formerly, Producing Director

Rhode Island International Film Festival

Wednesday, February 15, 4-5pm
Amica Center for Career Education

Adam manages programs and special funding projects for the Alliance, a international association of artists' communities that support artists of any discipline in the development of new creative work. In 2009, Adam was recognized as a young business and community leader in Providence Business News' 40 Under Forty. He has an MBA from Bryant University and a BA in English Literature from Reed College. Adam continues to expand his interests in film, video, and new media through the Digital Video Production Program at Rhode Island School of Design, Continuing Education.