

MONTHLY SCREENING Fall 2010

My Beijing Birthday

Thursday, October 21, 7:00pm,
Room Papitto, Bryant Center
Bryant University

The movie comically presents a generation known as China's new little emperors through a foreigner's perspective. When Howie Snyder goes to China to study standup comedy with a group of loveable 8 year olds, he does not only adapt to a new culture but also finds some unforgettable friends. He later returns and seeks out all his old friends. The classmates portray the drastic changes in China over those few years with changed homes, opinions, careers, and future dreams.

Screening is free and open to the general public.
Refreshments will be served.
