

MILITARY SCIENCE

NO. 7

U.S. News & World
Report 2020

WHY STUDY MILITARY SCIENCE AT BRYANT?

Our Army ROTC Program allows you to earn a degree in the major and concentration of your choice as well as the bar of Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, National Guard, or Reserves.

▶ While studying for a bachelor's degree in your area of interest, you will take part in training with the Army ROTC that focuses on leadership development, military science, strategy, and problem solving through practical, hands-on exercises.

▶ Gain marketable management, technical, and leadership skills that are highly regarded and desired for positions within the armed forces, and in government, the business world, and at non-profit organizations.

▶ With a distinguished academic record and co-curricular involvements, you may qualify for a merit-based Army ROTC scholarship, which covers the full value of tuition per year, plus an annual book allowance and monthly stipend from the ROTC command.

BRIANA NISBET HOADLEY '18

*First Lieutenant
U.S. Army, Fort Carson, CO*

MAJOR: International Business:
Global Supply Chain Management

MINOR: Spanish

HOMETOWN: Suffield, CT

PATH: Studied abroad in Chile; Student Ambassador; mentored students in the IDEA program as a member of Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership Honor Society; President of Omicron Delta Kappa; member of the Women's Rugby Team; member of Delta Zeta sorority.

"I joined ROTC because I wanted to serve my country and get an education at the same time. I always knew I wanted to serve in the military, but I also knew I wanted to have the experience of going to college. ROTC gave me the best of both worlds. I could still have the experiences of a normal college student, but at the same time I trained to become a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army."

WHY STUDY MILITARY SCIENCE?

1 Earn Recognition and Credentials

- You may participate in the first two years of the ROTC curriculum without any post-college obligation.
- Instruction by the Army ROTC will help you develop practical skills not only in military science, but also in leadership, strategy, and problem solving.
- In addition to receiving a degree in your program of choice upon graduation, you will earn the bar of Second Lieutenant and be commissioned into the Army, Army Reserves, or Army National Guard.
- As a Second Lieutenant of the U.S. Army, you may immediately lead up to 44 men and women upon graduation, earning experience that is highly regarded in the business world.

2 Financial Aid for ROTC Participants

- As a qualified student entering the Army ROTC Advanced Course and agreeing to accept an Army commission as a Second Lieutenant, you will receive a tax-free stipend for each school month and an annual book allowance.
- If you have a distinguished academic record, participate in clubs and activities, and are physically active, you may receive a competitive, merit-based Army ROTC scholarship. Scholarship recipients receive the full value of tuition each year plus an annual book allowance, academic fees, and a monthly stipend.
- For ROTC scholarship recipients who reside on campus, Bryant provides institutional grant funds to cover the direct cost of room and board.

“Through the guidance I received from my instructors and commanding officers, ROTC prepared me for success in all facets of life. The lessons and values I learned made me a better athlete, student, and leader.”

CARISSA GOULD '17
Military Intelligence Officer
U.S. Army

JOSEPH TOWLE '18
Detachment Commander
Military Police Platoon Leader
U.S. Army National Guard, RI

MAJOR: Marketing
MINOR: Sociology
HOMETOWN: Bedford, MA
PATH: Acted as a Marketing Intern and Promotion Team Member for Narragansett Beer; provided marketing and social media expertise as an intern with Berry Insurance in Franklin, MA; created advertising material for Barnum Financial Group as an intern; developed a marketing plan for Boston's Wicked Early Sports Report.

“ROTC was the highlight of my time at Bryant University. It not only prepared me for my military obligation, but also my civilian work. The program allows us to be both regular college students, and members of the military. The second I arrived on campus I had friends in all the graduating classes. At Bryant we call ROTC a family, and it really is.”

To learn more about Military Science or other programs at Bryant, please contact:
Office of Admission • 401.232.6100 • 800.622.7001 • admission@bryant.edu